Honolulu, Hawaii 96825.
- My social security number is
- My nationality is Chinese (Republic of China in Taiwan).
- My date of birth is
- My U. S. visa status is: permanent resident of the U. S.
- My place of employment is Holiday Inn-Waikiki in Honolulu.
- My job title is general manager.
- My job description is: managing the day-to-day operation of the Holiday Inn-Waikiki Hotel.

ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY 2

- a. November 1988 to March 1991; assistant general manager;
assisting general manager in managing the Cultural Plaza.

April 1991 to July 31, 1995; general manager; managing the day-to-day operation of the Cultural Plaza.

- b. 1988-89: Mr. Chen-I Hsu

As far as I know, they were "seconded" employees from CAL.

- c. I was given instructions, directions, and/or orders from Longevity's board of directors.

21-04-1402-4670

d. Longevity paid my salary and benefits.

ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY 3

- I have been an employee of CAL.

a. I was assistant general manager of CAL's office in San Francisco from September 1987 to October 1988. My job duty was to assist the general manager in managing the day-to-day operation of that office.

I was the deputy director of public relations of CAL's office in Taipei from June 1977 to August 1987. My job duties included: planning, conducting, and managing public relations programs designed to create and maintain the public image of CAL.

b. As far as I can recall, my supervisors were:

1977-1987: Mr. L. C. Lin

1987-1988: Mr. C. F. Fu

c. CAL paid my salary and benefits.

ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY 4

- I have been "seconded" to Longevity from CAL.

a. There was no specific arrangement, agreement, and/or contract. I simply received any order of overseas assignment.

b. I have no idea who suggested and/or requested me to work at Longevity. The order of my assignment to Longevity probably was signed by CAL's general manager.

c. I am unable to answer this part of the question because I am not aware of any specific arrangement, agreement and/or contract for me to work at Longevity.

ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY 5

- No, I have never been "seconded" to CAL from Longevity.

ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY 6

- Chen-I Hsu and Chang-Jong Tuan. I do not know the circumstances of their being "seconded".

ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY 7

- No.

ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY 8

- No involvement personally.

ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY 9

- As far as I remember, the rental rate was fixed before I was "seconded" to Longevity.

ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY 10

- Longevity's role was to provide the space and was not involved in the management of the space. It was the tenant's business to take care of the space.

ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY 11

- As far as I know, the tenant gave Longevity a check for the rent every month.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR DOCUMENTS

- I do not have any of the documents in my possession and do not know whether such documents ever existed. To the best of my knowledge, no officers or directors or other personnel of Holiday Inn-Waikiki were involved in the leasing of space at the Cultural Plaza.
